West Division champs

With a 49-19 win over Dassel-Cokato on Wednesday, Oct. 16, the Glencoe-Silver Lake Panther football team clinched the West Division title of the Wright County Conference.

For their efforts, the Panthers now have a bye for the first game of the Section 2 (Class AAA) playoffs, which means they'll have almost a week-and-a-half to prepare for either Providence Academy or Breck when the teams meet on Saturday, Oct. 26, at 3 p.m. in Glencoe.

GSL's offense came out with a bang against the Chargers, as quarterback Keaton Anderson rushed the Panthers down to the DC 3-yard line on just five carries after starting from the GSL 15.

Fullback Dalton Clouse punched it in on the next play, giving the home team a 7-0 advantage with the extra point.

Anderson played a vital role in the Panther rushing attack this week after gaining just 27 yards on seven carries last week against Waconia. He mostly benefitted from the Charger defense focusing on stopping Clouse.

"They were just crashing down on the center every time, stopping Clouse," Anderson said. "They were just leaving holes open. Every once in a while they had a linebacker rolling over the top, but other than that the line was just opening up holes."

The quarterback said he was surprised they were keying in on one guy, especially after Jake Stuedemann had such a big performance last week at halfback.

"Every week someone else can step in," Anderson said. "Everyone's a threat."

The offense received some help from its counterpart, as the GSL defense came up with two takeaways. One resulted in a 72-yard touchdown return by senior linebacker Keenan Mehlos that put GSL up 49-7 after DC fumbled on an option play late in the third quarter.

"I saw the back go out and saw the pitch was fumbled at first, but I didn't really see the ball until all the coaches were yelling to pick it up," Mehlos said with a laugh. "I picked it up and ran it in for the score!"

The varsity defense gave up 14 points to the Chargers, despite missing Teddy Petersen at safety with a broken hand, and defensive end Luke Syvertson with a knee injury. Both are expected to return for the Saturday game. Stepping in for Petersen was Jayden Tschimperle, and Zach Jungclaus for Syvertson Wednesday night.

"They did a great job," Mehlos said of the two. "They really stepped in and filled the roles well on kind of short notice with only two days of practice. But I think they did good for just stepping right in."

So how did it feel to close out the WCC schedule with a big win?

"Great!" Mehlos said grinning from ear to ear. "That's all we've been talking about all week, is getting that conference championship. I think we came in mentally prepared and just took it."

The next goal on the list?

"Win sections," Mehlos said without hesitation. "Then go on to state, and win state."

Head coach Scott Tschimperle reiterated his linebacker's words.

"The goal is to win the section and get to the Dome," Tschimperle said.

"Every game we've played this year,

CC teams ready for sections

By Josh Randt

With the section meet on Thursday, Oct. 24, at Milaca on the radar, the Glencoe-Silver Lake cross country teams had a strong showing at the Watertown-Mayer invitational on Tuesday, Oct. 15.

The Panther boys claimed first place out of seven teams, scoring 27 team points, as the girls took fifth out of seven with 125 points.

Brandon Richter, Isiah Herout, Garret Ardolf and Cody Becker finished 3-6, and Garrett Ober took ninth to round out the top ten.

Austin Schroeffer finished 12th, and Casey Schulz took 42nd, as the boys posted their best finish of the season, despite missing top runner Jac Chelman who was resting up for sections.

"Even without Jac, we knew we'd probably do really well," head boys' coach Jeff Delwiche said. "We did better than expected, so we're ready (for sections) I guess."

If the boys make it to state as a team, they won't have anyone participate individually. If they wouldn't make it, there should be a chance for some individuals to advance, though, Delwiche said "hopefully that doesn't apply," and they qualify as a team.

The girls didn't quite have the same team effort as the boys, but standout runner Tori Burr and Erica Hecksel each had their best performance of the season.

Hecksel took 29th with a 18:14, while Burr took second overall with a 15:23, splitting up Annandale's one two tandem of Courtney Alama and Elizabeth Schlafer, who took first and third.

Isiah Herout finished fourth at the Watertown-Mayer invitational meet on Tuesday, Oct. 15. Herout will play a pivotal part at the Section 5 (Class A) meet on Thursday, Oct. 24, in Milaca, where the Panther boys have a shot to make it to state.

Lady Panthers now face 16-12-1 Jordan

By Josh Randt
Sports Editor

After a hard fought season in the Wright County Conference, the Glencoe-Silver Lake Lady Panthers look to extend their volleyball season on Thursday, Oct. 24, traveling to Jordan to face the 16-12-1 Jaguars.

Previous to Thursday's matchup, the Panthers took part in a tournament in Rochester this past weekend, and claimed seventh place out of 14 teams.

GSL opened the tournament with a three-set win over Rochester Lourdes. The Panthers dropped the first set 25-22, but came back and won set two 25-16, and set three 17-15.

But the girls ran into a tough Cannon Falls team that won both sets 25-10, and 25-13, which pitted GSL against Rochester Century for third place in pool play.

But the Lady Panthers could not pull off the win, losing 25-22 and 27-25, putting them up against Dover Eyota in a battle for seventh place.

Things didn't look good as GSL lost the first set 25-21, but the Panthers clawed their way back to a 25-22 victory in the second set, and edged the Eagles 15-13 in set three, claiming seventh place.

Senior captain Steph Klockmann had a big day offensively and defensively, tallying 53 digs, 31 kills and 7

Lexi Kerslake (3) tries to spike alongside the net against the Litchfield Dragons. Kerslake had 47 digs and 23 kills at the Rochester Exchange Club Volleyball Invitational this past weekend. The Lady Panthers earned seventh place out of 14 teams at the two-day tournament.

Sound numbers come from sound linemen

Tallying up the regular season offensive stats for the Glencoe-Silver Lake football team, it's quite obvious the Panthers are having a stellar year rushing the ball.

Through the regular season, GSL has 3,001 yards of total offense, with 2,644 of them coming on the ground.

The Panthers average 330 rushing yards per game, with nearly 50 hand-offs every match up.

Dalton Clouse has 912 rushing yards, and seven rushing touchdowns on 136 carries, which means he's averaging 6.7 yards per carry, and 114 yards a game.

Jake Stuedemann has 833 yards rushing on 117 carries with 18 touchdowns. He's averaging 7.1 yards per carry, and 104 yards a game.

At quarterback, Keaton Anderson has 608 rushing yards, and four touchdowns on the ground while averaging seven yards per carry, and 76 yards per game.

While the backs get the credit, it's the members of the offensive line that are the reason why GSL is having such a phenomenal year rushing.

"It all starts up front," head coach

Scott Tschimperle said. "Our offensive line is playing tremendous football. If we didn't have good line play, we wouldn't have the success we're having."

Jayden Tschimperle (22) and Keenan Mehlos (34) close in on a loose ball after a Charger fumble. Mehlos eventually picked up the ball and scored a 72-yard touchdown, which put the Panthers on top 49-7 late in the third quarter.

our kids have been focused, and that's a tribute to our seniors and the leadership we have."

Tschimperle said the kids have "bought in" to the program and won the division championship for the second year in a row. Now, they have a whole another season ahead of them in the playoffs.

"This is what you play for," Tschimperle said. "This is where everything counts. Either you come out and you're ready to play every game, or you're packing your stuff up."

As far as changing game plans for the playoffs, Tschimperle said, "We've gone 6-2 with the stuff we've ran so far, and could have easily been 7-1 or even 8-0 ... I don't think anything is going to change right now going into the playoffs."

The journey back to the Metrodome begins Saturday, Oct. 26, at 3 p.m. ***

GSL deferred to the second half, so the Chargers chose to kick off to start the game.

The Panthers started from their own 15-yard line, though in a matter of five plays they would be deep in Charger territory.

Three keepers by Anderson brought GSL to its own 43, before the quarterback took off on a 49-yard option read down to the DC 8 after getting pushed out of bounds.

One more keeper for five yards down to the 3-yard line and it seemed like a good time to give Clouse his first rush of the night, which he easily took in for the first score of the night with 9:21 remaining in the first quarter. The extra point made it 7-0.

Charger return man Joel Carlson had a decent night returning GSL kick offs, taking the Panther's first kick 30 yards to the DC 44-yard line.

But the stout defense of GSL forced a three-and-out as Mehlos and Tyler Donnay held the Chargers to just three yards on first and second down.

Carter Pinske had an interception that was waved off by the referees as an incompletion, much to the delight of DC quarterback Zach Martin, who punted to the GSL 22 on the next play.

Anderson carried twice to start the second drive, adding another 25 yards to his stats before handing off to Clouse for 12 more.

Six plays later, Stuedemann had his first touchdown of the evening, punching it in from 19 yards out.

The extra point put GSL in front 14-0 with 3:42 remaining in the first.

Carlson returned the kickoff to the DC 27.

Charger fullback Derek Antil gave DC its first substantial gain of the evening with a six yard gain on first down. But Dalton Asplin was brought down for no gain by Adam Eberhard on second-and-four, and Martin's pass was incomplete as Mehlos brought the pressure on third down, which resulted in another DC punt to the GSL 19.

The third Panther drive was all Clouse and Anderson, as the former rushed four times for 50 yards, and the latter compiled 23 yards on three carries.

The play to paydirt came as the Panthers faked to Stuedemann around the right side, and rolled Anderson to his left where he found Clouse in the flat for a 9-yard score. Dominic Bondhus' extra point capped off an 81-yard drive that took just three minutes and 16 seconds, leaving 11:11 on the second quarter-clock.

Carlson's return put DC at its own 39, until Antil ripped off 15 yards up the middle on first-and-10.

The fullback was stuffed on the next play, so the Chargers decided to try and trick GSL on second down with a reverse pass from Carlson. But Bondhus read it perfectly and intercepted the ball at the GSL 19-yard line with 9:56 remaining in the first half.

Unfortunately, the Panthers couldn't capitalize on the turnover, and went three-and-to as Tanner Grack punted to the Charger 26.

Fortunately, DC gained only five yards on the ensuing drive, and punted back to GSL at its own 41-yard line with just under seven minutes remaining.

Colton Lueders carried to the Panther 49, before Stuedemann dashed his way down to the Charger 29 with a 22-yard gain.

Three plays later, Stuedemann had GSL at the DC 12, where Clouse took over.

The senior fullback gained the rest of the necessary yardage on three carries, scoring up the middle from the 1-yard line, as GSL went up 28-0 with 1:50 remaining in quarter two.

DC took over at its own 33, and looked to be on its way to another three-and-out until Tommy Halonen rushed right, and then threw back to Martin for a quarterback screen that resulted in a 64-yard touchdown with just :09.3 remaining in the first half.

The Panthers rode a 28-7 lead into halftime.

Stuedemann returned the second-half kickoff 48 yards to the DC 37-yard line, where the Panthers started an eight-play drive that yielded a 35-7 lead after Stuedemann found the end zone from one-yard out.

The Chargers turned the ball over on downs on the ensuing drive when Eberhard forced a bad throw from Martin with some heavy pressure, despite Carlson returning the kickoff 53 yards to the GSL 35.

GSL's backs chipped away at the Charger's defense until Stuedemann gouged them for 45 yards, setting the offense up at the 8-yard line.

A counter to Lueders left one man to beat, whom he gladly plowed over as he crossed the goal line for a 42-7 Panther lead with 5:13 remaining in the third quarter.

Taking over at their own 47, the Chargers were putting together their best drive of the night, until Martin's pitch on an option play led to Mehlos' 72-yard fumble recovery that put GSL up 49-7 with :48 remaining in the third quarter.

The JV players came in with about 11:00 remaining in the fourth.

DC's reserves faired better than its varsity players, with Tommy Halonen scoring from two-yards out. The unsuccessful two-point conversion cut the lead to 49-13 with 7:16 remaining.

The Chargers final touchdown came on their own long fumble recovery by Isaac Pokornowski, who went 74 yards for a score with 1:24 remaining.

GSL knelt the clock out after that.

solo blocks during the two-day tournament.

Fellow co-captain Lexi Kerslake had 47 digs and 23 kills, while Taylor Novak produced another 43 digs and 18 kills of her own.

According to head coach Lori Schwartz, the key to getting past the Jaguars will be "stopping their outside hitters with a consistent digging game."

"We need to be efficient on offense," Schwartz said. "We really need to have more kills than errors to come out ahead."

Out of the 26 teams the Lady Panthers have faced this year, only four teams have swept them, which means GSL has claimed at least one set against 22 teams, despite a 10-16 record.

Kerslake called this a "scrappy group of girls," at the beginning of the season, which they've proven to be true. But they'll have to dig deep in order to prevent the season from ending come Thursday night in Jordan.

"This was another veteran race by Tori," head girls' coach Jann Savre said. "She knows where she needs to be and digs deep to finish those races ... Tori ran with the lead pack throughout the first loop of the race. On the second loop, the pack splintered, but Tori maintained second place and had a slight lead with 200 yards to go."

Though Burr could not overtake Alama, her performance is promising with the section meet this week.

Savre said "the four seniors are in charge of this race," regarding sections.

"For some of them, it will be their last high school race, and I would like to see more times close to, or even breaking, that 18-minute mark," Savre said. "I think they have it in them to do so. The younger runners will follow their lead."

Now that the regular season is over, the Panthers travel to Milaca to run Stones Throw Golf Course for the Section 5 (Class A) championship. Team and individual champions then advance to the state meet at St. Olaf College on Saturday, Nov. 2.

Zach Jones, have had a big year lead blocking on tosses and sweep plays.

"He's having a tremendous year," Tschimperle said of Lepel. "Our sweeps are really well blocked this year. With him and Jones coming around the corner, it's fun to watch."

While the line savors each yard the offense gains, the backs have been doing their part blocking for one another as well, which Tschimperle said is a tribute to "the whole offensive unit, not just one kid."

Colton Lueders has been busy blocking for his fellow running backs, and recently has been sharing some of the carries as well.

The stats look nice, but Tschimperle said, "I don't care where we're at (with stats) as long as we're playing good football coming into sections."

With a first round bye in the Section 2 (Class AAA) playoffs, GSL will look to unleash its rushing attack against Providence Academy or Breck, depending upon the outcome Tuesday night.

Going back to my time spent playing for GSL, I remember assistant coach Paul Lemke reiterating that "the game is won and lost on the front lines."

The two losses on the Panther's record this year came against Hutchinson, which held GSL to just 177 rushing yards, and Spring Lake Park, which allowed 218 yards. Far below the season average of 330 yards per game.

Indeed, the game is won and lost on the front lines.

So while you cheer for the flash and dash of the running backs, make sure to throw in a couple of compliments for the offensive line and backs that are blocking. Because on a crisp night at Stevens Seminary Stadium, you'll hear the cracking pads of the big boys up front just before you hear "TOUCH-DOWN, PANTHERS!" from the press box.

Nolan Lepel (58) has been securing lanes for Jake Stuedemann (5) and the rest of the Panther running backs throughout the regular season. Lepel and fellow guard Zach Jones, along with the rest of the offensive line, have led helped GSL average 330 yards on the ground through eight regular-season games thus far.

Being reformed

This coming Sunday many of us will celebrate and remember the Reformation. The same message that Martin Luther spoke that began the Reformation is the same message today. For "all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God, and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus." (Romans 3:23-24) We all have sinned. We all have failed to keep God's commands and nothing that we can do, nothing we can buy can get us out of the punishment that we deserve. Yet, we are justified. We are made right with God freely, because of Christ's death on the cross. He paid our price, our indulgences, not with money, but with his suffering and death.

So as we stand before God with the things that we have done wrong on our hearts and we try and explain ourselves, our Savior puts His finger to our lips and says "shh... perfect." The Law and the Devil accuse us before God. They point out all the blemishes, all the things that we know we should do and yet did not do; all the things we did do, that we should not have, but our Savior silences those accusations and covers us with a robe of righteousness. All of our sins, all of our imperfections are forgiven, because of Christ.

The legacy of the Reformation is that we can now stand before God, unafraid for punishment does not await us. We are now righteous in God's sight. We did not and could not earn it, but as the Holy Spirit through St. Paul says, "This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe." (Romans 3:22) Our sin, our guilt has been removed and been replaced with righteousness. We have been and are now being reformed in the image of the One who has loved us with an everlasting love.
